CIA DIRECTOR

THE SOVIET DOMESTIC SERVICE BRIEFLY NOTES THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WAS "FORCED" TO RETIRE THE "FINALLY PLAYED-OUT" CIA DIRECTOR ALLEN DULLES, REPLACING HIM WITH "THE BIG INDUSTRIALIST" AND FORMER AEC CHAIRMAN, JOHN MCCONE. THE REPLACEMENT IS WIDELY REPORTED BY SATELLITE RADIOS, SOME OF WHICH ATTRIBUTE DULLES' RETIREMENT TO HIS "FAILURES" IN CUBA AND LAOS. THE EAST GERMAN NEWS SERVICE OBSERVES THAT WHEN WITH THE AEC MCCONE WAS "THE MOST ZEALOUS CHAMPION OF THE RESUMPTION OF NUCLEAR WEAPON TESTS." EAST BERLIN RADIO CONCLUDES THAT KENNEDY WANTS TO MAINTAIN HIS FOREIGN POLICY LINE WHILE BRANDING DULLES AS A SCAPEGOAT FOR PAST REVERSES.
